GETS 5 YEARS ON PROBATION IN BOOTLEG CASE

Claude Milton Anderson, 40, of Wilkesboro R. 2, N. C., was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for five years in Federal court in Harrisburg Wednesday on Federal liquor violation charges involving the operation of a still near Gettysburg.

A companion, Lue Gene Shew, 21, of Wilkesboro R. 3, N. C., was found not guilty when Anderson said the younger man had no knowledge of the still and had merely stopped at the farm on which the still was located with Anderson as they were bound north from their North Carolina homes.

Federal agents testified they found Anderson and Shew in a vacant farm house near Mummaburg on March 13. They said a 200-gallon still was installed in the cellar and 600 gallons of mash were fermenting.

Pleaded Guilty

Anderson pleaded guilty to the charge. He said he knew the still was on the farm but was unable to say who put it there. Shew pleaded not guilty and waived jury trial. Anderson's sentence came after Judge Frederick V. Folmer heard the case.

The younger man, married and the father of a two weeks old baby, is already on probation in a liquor case in his home state. He said he came north with Anderson who is employed at the Camp Ritchie project near Gettysburg, in hope of finding work.

Judge Folmer told him he had better return to North Carolina, "and right away, because we don't look with favor on probation violators and you belong with your wife and child."

Hundreds of people lined the streets for the annual Memorial Day parade in Littlestown Wednesday evening and several hundred more gathered in the cemetery for the service which followed the parade.

He spoke of the dangers of subversion from within and the duty of every citizen to remain alert in order to combat Soviet influence. The speaker concluded his Memorial Day message with the statement that "if we continue to maintain our vigilance, then we will be paying a proper tribute to the legions in our nation's history, who have died in its defense."

The service at the cemetery included "Star Spangled Banner" by the High School Band, under the direction of Charles E. Tressler; invocation by the Rev. David S. ## Ask Help With Holiday Traffic

The Gettysburg Memorial Day Committee today asked residents of North Stratton St., Lincoln Ave., from Stratton to Washington St., and North Washington St., to refrain from parking along those streets from 1 to 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

POULTRYMEN GIVEN GLOOMY VIEW FOR YEAR

Adams County poultrymen, meeting Wednesday evening at the court house, learned that their difficulties likely will increase during coming months rather than decrease.

C. O. Dossin, poultry extension specialist from State College, told the group that all forecasts indicate increased numbers of eggs and broilers coming on the market, with the result that the prices the farmer will receive for the products will probably decline. At the same time the price of feed will probably continue high as will most other costs in connection with the production of eggs and chickens.

As if the increased cost of production and the lowered profits were not bad enough news, the poultrymen also learned that they have been suffering from greatly increased depredations from dogs and foxes.

300 Foxes Killed

Reports from the poultrymen indicated a number of incidents recently in which dogs mauled or killed chickens. One poultryman near New Oxford, it was reported, found six dogs in his chicken house a few weeks ago. The dogs, it was stated, had killed 150 chickens.

According to reports at the meeting the state will investigate and if the dogs are licensed the owners of the dogs will be required by the state to pay for the damage done. If the ownership of the dogs cannot be learned, the state will pay the damages, poultrymen said.

EIGHT ORDAINED

(Continued from Page 1) Buehler, of New York; Albert Burkhardt, of Third Lutheran Church, Baltimore; Marvin Eyer, St. John's Lutheran Church, Baltimore; Edgar Boehring, Richard Summer and Robert Summer, all of Luther Place Church, Washington, D. C.; Philip Lambdis, Evangelical Lutheran Church, Frederick; and Dixie Yaste, All Saints Church, Baltimore.

Wednesday's afternoon sessions were highlighted by a report from Rev. Dr. Paul C. Empe, executive director of the National Lutheran Council, the agency through which the eight general bodies of Lutherans cooperate in various activities.

Doctor Empe, terming communism as "taking the divine in man and perverting it into a monstrosity," urged as an answer to communism "a sacrificial dedication on the part of Christians to their Christian faith. Communism has closed many doors against us, and we need, in an even larger scale, to enter the doors still open in a holy, humble and Christian spirit."

The Lutheran World Action program of the National Lutheran Council is the most successful program of any Protestant denomination, Doctor Empe reported.

Rev. William Huddle, Williamsport, Md., reported that the Synod's 1952 Lutheran World Action goal has been met by 50 percent to date and urged congregations to complete their goals.

Rev. Dr. Martin L. Enders, pastor of First Lutheran Church, Baltimore, was presented with a certificate of commendation for his 50 years of service in the ministry. The presentation was made by the Rev. Frederick R. Wayne, Martinsburg, W. Va., who received a similar certificate at last year's convention. Three others were presented with certificates in absentia—Dr. Isaac Canada, who served nearly all of his 50 years in the ministry in India; Rev. Dr. Harry C. Erdman, pastor-emeritus of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Burkettville, Md.; and Rev. Carl Ziegler, of Cordova, Md.

The slate of delegates to the national ULCA convention was completed with the election of Rev. Edward P. Heinze, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Hagerstown, as a delegate.

Students Must Wait For N. O. Yearbooks

New Oxford High School students will have a long time to wait for their pictures and yearbooks. The youngsters were scheduled to get the yearbooks three weeks ago, Principal Selon Dockey said.

But the books were to be printed by the "offset" method from the photographs made of the graduating class and others. The "fixing solution" used in developing the pictures, however, proved valueless and the prints, like "old soldiers," "just faded away." The photographer was able to salvage the whole program by printing new pictures from the old negatives and the yearbook, photographs, etc., will be available in three or four weeks, Dockey said.

WHAT GOES ON INSIDE

We are ruled by our thoughts. It's what goes on inside of us—those plans, dreams, imaginations, resolves—that really give the index to our character, our success, and our happiness. There are always contests going on, but the ones that are worth while, and which we win, are what add to our moral stature.

We can't tell just by looking at a man or woman what is going on inside of that one's mind and heart. It is a mistake to form judgments before sufficient data are gathered so as to give these judgments substance. We can't leave to others this thing of judging others, anyway. Snap judgments are nearly always wrong. How many of us could even guess the brave fights going on within another, or the sorrows born patiently, or the hidden display of courage and spiritual heroism?

Walking in a crowded street, with people all about me, I wonder what is going on inside them all. Little knowledge along this line is ever revealed. People, mostly, prefer to fight their own battles—win, lose, or draw! They retain their self-respect thereby, and become indebted to no one.

The more troubles, disappointments, and failures that we experience, the more tolerant and understanding we should be toward others. Let us thank God for the silent language with which we are endowed. If we have nothing good and fine to say about someone else, we can then resort to this silent language, which has proved to be a blessing so many times at crucial moments.

An eminent English book reviewer gave advice to new comers in this field and cautioned them against bitterness and unmerited words of censure. He told of a famous writer, whose latest book was far from being equal to many another she had written in former days, and how one critic brutally reviewed it, not knowing the author was dying of an incurable disease, but had time to read that unkind comment.

Why can't we always be kind, giving generous praise, when due, and encouragement whenever possible? We know so little about what is going on inside of others!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "It Can Be Done." Protected, 1952, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

WORKMAN'S EVENING

The night slips down. The tasks are done.

With little lost and little won.

Now freed from all restraints I may

Hear what the children have to say

And be their father, best I can,

Instead of being a working man.

The day is over. Done the need

For skillful hands and strength and speed.

Prattle and childish laughter here

Replace the sound of press and gear.

Our output being love and rest,

The home production line is best.

No time clock checks me in and out.

Here only happy children shout.

We sit at table and they see

Always the gentler side of me.

Their father, whom to greet they ran,

And not a numbered working man.

JAPANESE AND GERMAN PEACE PACTS SIMILAR

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—While the language in the peace treaties with Japan and Germany is not identical, at least in one part the effect is the same. That's in the agreement for keeping troops in both places.

"It's done a little more smoothly in the Japanese treaty, which says all occupation forces must be withdrawn but then quickly adds that Japan can agree, if it wishes, to let troops stay.

Japan promptly agreed to let American troops stay although not as occupation forces.

Pleasantly Done
In the treaty with Western Germany provision for letting Allied troops stay was written right into the document, but pleasantly.

The U.S., British and French troops who have been occupying their respective zones of Germany since war's end no longer will be called occupation forces. They'll be known as defense troops.

This country in the case of Japan, and this country and its allies in the case of Germany, would hardly have signed the treaties at all if they couldn't keep troops in both places.

Outposts Against Reds

Both are outposts against Communism. If the Allies left Germany tomorrow it would be an invitation to the Communists to take over in defenseless West Germany.

And if the U.S. thought of marching out of Japan, at least until the Japanese built some defenses of their own, that would be another invitation.

But the Allies gave Japan, on paper at least, more freedom than Germany gets. The German treaty doesn't say anything about letting Germany rear arm although she'll be allowed to raise 12 divisions for the European army.

Circumstances Differ
The treaty with Japan says that country can rear arm. But the circumstances are different. Japan stays alone in the Far Pacific as an ally of the West. It has to rear arm if it is to be an ally instead of a liability.

But Germany in the heart of Europe, surrounded by new friends and old enemies, is under suspicion. It is an outpost against Russia, but with reservations.

Still, the treaty with Germany may turn out to be the most progressive and far-reaching step in

BARUCH CITES DEFENSE WASTE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch told senators Wednesday that more than 20 billion dollars is being wasted on the defense program because of what he called needless inflation.

He urged a broad overhauling of the multi-billion dollar defense effort.

Baruch took pot shots at President Truman, the State Department and others on diplomatic, defense and domestic issues.

Without mentioning Truman by name Baruch protested the White House decision to delay or stretch out the program for a 143-wing Air Force.

And he opposed bringing Western Germany into the North Atlantic the history of Europe. For plans afoot now envision Germany as part of a united Europe.

Baruch, 81-year-old financier and ex-adviser to presidents, testified at an open hearing of the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee.

Baruch joined forces with members of Congress who have been urging greater air power, to match and outstrip Soviet Russia's.

PRESBYTERIANS PROTEST DENIAL OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN S.A.

By GEORGE CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP)—The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was asked Tuesday to protest the "denial of the exercise of religious freedom" to Protestants in Colombia, South America.

A foreign missions committee, headed by J. Douglas Brown, of Princeton, N. J., recommended to the church's 164th annual General Assembly, its top governing body, that it take the action.

Can't Be Silent
"We can not keep silent about the suffering of our brethren," the committee said in its recommended resolution. "They have been insulted, threatened, beaten, jailed, have had their homes ransacked or burned, their churches damaged or destroyed."

The resolution blamed the acts "largely" on "fanatical Roman Catholic priests, some of them Spaniards" but it added that many Colombians, including Catholics, "have repudiated this violent persecution."

The resolution calls upon the Colombian government and the Vatican to seek restoration of "religious freedom" in Colombia.

Assembly, its top governing body, that it take the action.

Next At Minneapolis

The assembly decided to meet next year in Minneapolis, Minn., after an invitation was extended by Dr. Arnold H. Lowe, of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in that city.

On Monday the assembly called on congress to extend Social Security benefits to ministers who want it.

Donald L. Hibbard of Philadelphia, vice president of the Presbyterians' pension board, said he knew of no other major denomination which had yet taken such a stand.

Restore Waiting Period
The assembly, representing 2½ million church members, approved the move by voice vote. There was some volume of "no's."

The assembly also moved to restore a church requirement that its ministers do not remarry a divorced person until a year has elapsed from the divorce.

A committee was named to draw up a proposal for restoring the requirement, in some form, but an official pointed out any new provisions could not become church law until after local presbyteries act on it in the ensuing year.

Says Capone Clique Got Break On Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Williams (R-Del.) says the government has let the late Al (Scarface) Capone and some of his associates get away with not paying more than one million dollars in back taxes.

Williams told the Senate on Tuesday the average taxpayer would have difficulty accepting the Bureau of Internal Revenue explanation of tax leniency for gangsters.

He quoted Treasury officials as saying they had worked out liberal compromises for Capone and others "on the basis that since racketeers keep a substantial part of their assets in the form of hidden cash or invested in legitimate enterprises under fictitious names, it is hard for the government to collect the taxes due."

ACME MARKET BURNS
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fire Wednesday wrecked the interior of an Acme supermarket in Philadelphia's Oak Lane section. Five firemen were injured or overcome by smoke battling the two-alarm blaze. Flames burst through the building and firemen fought the blaze for three hours before getting it under control.

ALL DEDICATE PLAYGROUND ON FRIDAY EVENING

Emmitsburg's new $2,000 playground constructed by the Emmitsburg Memorial Post 6658, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be presented to the borough at dedicatory exercises Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock on the Emmitsburg community field.

The playground is being presented and dedicated as a "lasting memorial to all veterans who served and died for our country." J. Everett Chrisher, chairman of the VFW committee which had charge of planning of the Emmitsburg Memorial playground, said today, "We hope the playground will help mold our children of today into better citizens of tomorrow."

Opening the program will be a march, "Gate City," played by the Emmitsburg Municipal Band. Lumen F. Norris, adjutant-quartermaster of Post 6658, will deliver the introductory remarks and later introduce guests present for the service.

Three Speeches
The Emmitsburg American Legion color guard will raise the flag as the municipal band plays the "Star Spangled Banner." Invocation will be given by the Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg.

Harold M. Hoke, past commander of Post 6658, will present the playground to the community and it will be accepted in the name of the borough by Mayor Thornton W. Rodgers.

Following an address by Wales E. Rightour, town commissioner and past commander of Post 6658, and benediction by the Rev. Michael J. O'Brien, the American Legion Color Guard will conduct a Retreat service.

Block Party To Follow
Opening of the playground and its dedication will then be conducted by Post 6658 Commander Fern R. Ohler and Mayor Rodgers. The service will conclude with a serenade, "The Twilight Hour," played by the Emmitsburg band.

Members of the committee which planned and constructed the playground included, besides Chairman Chrisher, Wales E. Rightour, Roger Zurgable, Robert E. Daugherty, Lumen F. Norris, Harold M. Hoke, William D. Rodgers and Richard Ripka.

Following the service the VFW will hold the first of a series of block parties. The first, on Friday and Saturday nights, will be for the Ambulance Maintenance Fund. The second, to be held August 15 and 16, will be for benefit of the Emmitsburg Memorial Hall.

MILAN RESERVES MOVIE THEATER FOR CHILDREN

MILAN (AP)—A movie hall here is reserved for children under 15 and adults can only get admittance "if accompanied by a child."

It is called the "Gnomo" (Dwarf) and its name was picked in a referendum conducted among the pupils of primary schools.

While Italian parliament is involved in deep discussions on what kind of literature and movies children should be allowed to see without danger for their education, the Milanese movie hall has found an easy answer: reserve a movie hall for children only.

Under Italian law children are forbidden to see movies "morally dangerous."

The Gnomo's director, Dr. Renzo Cotta, a teacher in one of Milan's schools, believes besides forbidding "morally dangerous" films for children one must keep them also from films they would not understand. "If you take a 12-year-old child to see Hamlet, or any such film, which is not dangerous, but difficult to understand, he will look elsewhere for amusement," he said.

Among the films included in Gnomo's programs are Disney's "Cinderella," "Snow White" and "Treasure Island." "The Bells of Saint Mary" in which Ingrid Bergman and Bing Crosby star, "David Copperfield" with Freddie Bartholomew, "Mother" with Irene Dunne.

The Gnomo can hold 400 children. The entrance fee is 20 cents, cheaper than most movie halls here. An inquiry conducted among 2,000 children under 15 revealed that children like war and adventurous movies most and that 80 per cent of them went to regular movies, including those from which children should have been excluded.

EXPECT USSR REPLY TO NEW PLAN ON ARMS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia today was expected to give a quick rejection to the West's new plan for ceilings on military forces.

Quarters usually familiar with Soviet views said the Russians undoubtedly would stick to their own demands for a flat one-third cut in the armed forces of the five big powers.

The new Western proposal, laid before the U. N. Disarmament Commission yesterday, calls for ceilings of 1 1/2 million men each for the United States, Russia and China, and 800,000 each for Britain and France.

Ask Two Questions Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik will make known Russia's position next Tuesday. Meanwhile, he asked the West two important questions which were left unanswered in the working paper.

When you speak of China, Malik asked, are you talking about the People's Republic of China (the Communists)? It was generally accepted that the Western proposal referred to the Peiping regime.

He also asked would the decisions on the reductions in armed forces be taken simultaneously with decisions on the prohibition of atomic weapons and other weapons of mass destruction?

On this point, the working paper merely says that the reduction of arms should be closely related to atomic control and other phases of arms regulation. The Russians have insisted on immediate decisions on the prohibition of atomic weapons and slashes in armed forces.

NO MORE CHECKS FOR PO WORKERS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postal Workers have been put on notice that there won't be any more pay checks until Congress passes a pending deficiency appropriation. The news came out in the Postal Bulletin, department publication, on Tuesday.

For practical purposes that gave the lawmakers just two days to avoid delayed paydays for the bulk of the employees.

In most cases the checks come around on the 16th and 31st of the month.

Friday is the Memorial Day holiday and Congress seldom operates on Saturday which is the 31st.

Both houses have passed bills carrying money to tide over a number of government agencies to the end of the fiscal year June 30, but the measures were not identical.

Couple Entertained On Anniversary

Top Justice Dept. Men "Resign" Posts

WASHINGTON (AP)—All the top men in the Justice Department have handed in resignations, but that doesn't necessarily mean they will be leaving soon.

James P. McGranery, who took office as Attorney General Tuesday, called for the resignations, it was learned today.

Most, but not all, attorney generals in the past have taken the same course. The idea is to give the new boss a free hand in making whatever changes he might desire.

and they are tied up in a conference for reconciliation of the differences.

The Post Office has more than 200 million dollars of operating funds, mostly payroll money, in the bill.

The bellhop, 48-year-old James Baysmore, had been hired by Andrew Butterworth, 58, of Queens Village, N. Y., to drive him home after he became ill while on vacation.

Baysmore told police he and Butterworth talked for about 10 minutes at the start of the trip, and then he thought his passenger fell asleep. But when they reached the entrance to the Holland Tunnel here—about 119 miles away from Atlantic City—Baysmore said he couldn't rouse Butterworth and headed for St. Francis Hospital.

Hospital authorities said Butterworth died of a heart attack shortly after leaving Atlantic City.
